MARLINS STORY & COMMUNITY IMPACT

THE MARLINS STORY

Every era of the Miami Marlins has embodied a relentless spirit. From rookies fighting for a spot and thriving in the spotlight, to local legends cementing moments that we will never forget. Together, they are building a future not just for South Florida, but with South Florida. The team enters the 2026 season riding momentum from a 17-win improvement in 2025 under Manager Clayton McCullough that marked the largest increase in wins in club history.

Along the way, Kyle Stowers was named a National League All-Star, selected to participate in the first-ever All-Star Game Swing Off, and recognized as the National League Player of the Month (July). Jakob Marsee earned National League Rookie of the Month honors (August) following a historic start to his MLB career, while Agustín Ramírez became the first rookie catcher in MLB history to record 20-plus home runs and 10-plus stolen bases in a single season.

Combine the excitement of South Florida with the tradition of America's pastime, and you get one of the most exciting brands in sport: Miami Marlins Baseball. Our community is defined by rich diversity, vibrant energy, and a deep-rooted love of the game. Pair the city's ambiance with the organization's refreshed approach to see a blend of past, present, and future.

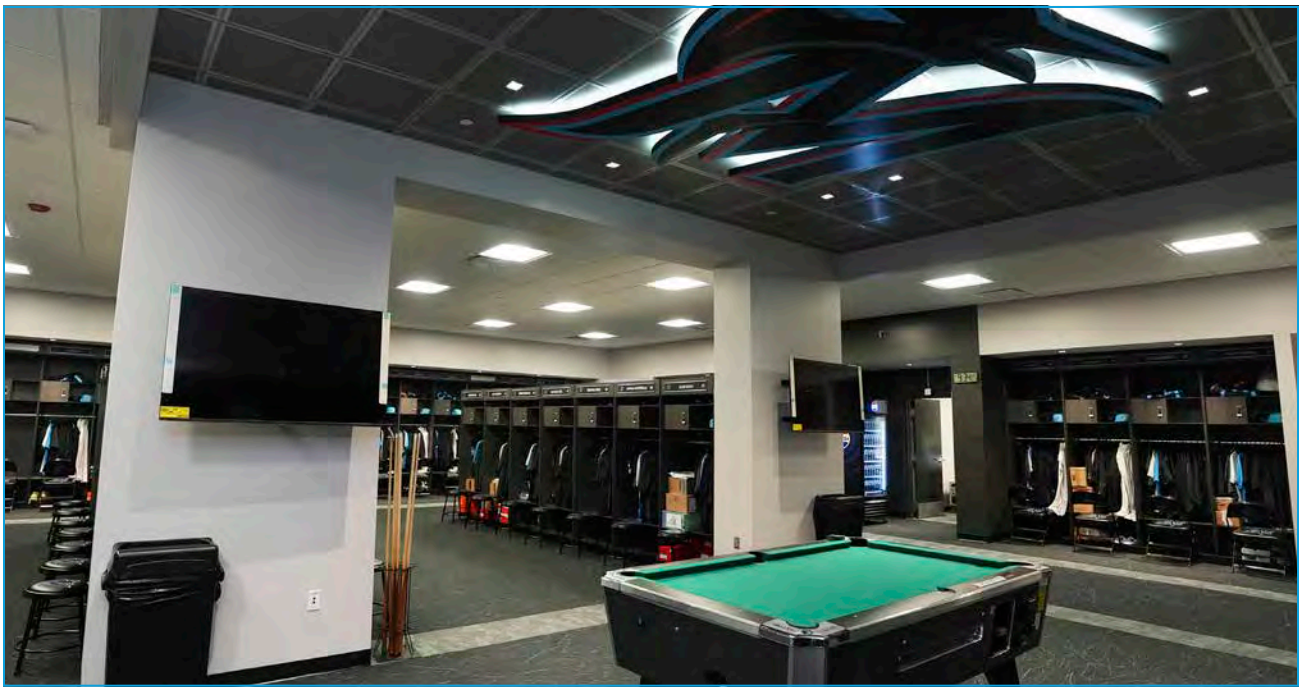
As the Marlins enter the franchise's 34th season, the club reflects on a history that includes two World Series championships (1997 and 2003) and four National League postseason appearances (1997, 2003, 2020, 2023). The two-time World Series Champion Marlins remain committed to building sustained success on and off the field as a world-class entertainment organization while making a positive impact throughout the community.

The club continues to invest heavily in staffing, infrastructure and technology. Since opening its state-of-the-art academy in the Dominican Republic in 2022, widely regarded as one of the best in MLB, the organization has expanded its commitment with a multi-year renovation of the Marlins Player Development Complex in Jupiter that began with major improvements to Roger Dean Chevrolet Stadium.

The renovations at the Marlins Jupiter Academy, completed ahead of 2026 Spring Training, deliver a significantly upgraded, state-of-the-art, training environment for its Major League and Minor League players. The project includes a 40,000-square-foot clubhouse, office and meeting space, and commercial kitchen. The organization also created a 12,500-square-foot, newly constructed weight room, training room, and hydrotherapy areas, including a sauna.

Additional upgrades include a 10,000-square-foot new agility field and a renovated batting cage retrofitted with advanced technology, reinforcing the organization's commitment to elite performance, preparation, and innovation.

Prior to the 2025 season, the Marlins also expanded and enhanced the home clubhouse at loanDepot park with world-class strength, conditioning, training, and recovery spaces. This year, the club completed further upgrades to player amenities at loanDepot park with a project to enhance and expand the clubhouse.



LOANDEPOT PARK

As Miami continues to establish itself on the global stage, loanDepot park for the second time welcomed the world to its home in 2026 as a host venue for every round of the World Baseball Classic. With passionate fan bases representing countries across Latin America, the Caribbean, and beyond, the event transforms the ballpark into a global celebration of our sport. This year's tournament brought nearly half a million fans to loanDepot park, with tens of millions more watching from around the world.

loanDepot park has become far more than just a baseball venue, hosting a wide range of marquee events including international baseball competitions, concerts, and the 2026 NHL Winter Classic, bringing outdoor hockey to South Florida for the first time. The ballpark hosted its first-ever tennis exhibition with the GEICO Miami Invitational, featuring world No. 1 men's tennis player Carlos Alcaraz.

Coming soon to the West Plaza of loanDepot park is Miami Live!, a dynamic mix of indoor-outdoor dining, entertainment, and community spaces. Done in partnership with The Cordish Companies, Miami Live! will extend the ballpark experience beyond game days and making loanDepot park a true year-round hub of culture and connection in Miami.

FRONT OFFICE

BRUCE SHERMAN

CHAIRMAN, PRINCIPAL OWNER, AND CONTROL PERSON

Bruce Sherman enters his ninth season as Chairman, Principal Owner, and Control Person of the Miami Marlins. Mr. Sherman serves as Chairman of the Board, representing the fourth ownership in club history after receiving unanimous approval from Major League Baseball Owners to acquire the team effective October 2, 2017. Mr. Sherman is the first Marlins Chairman to sit on Major League Baseball's Executive Council, and also currently serves on the Strategic Planning Committee and International Committee.

Over his eight years as Chairman, Principal Owner, and Control Person, the Marlins have made significant investments across different facets of the organization, including infrastructure, staffing, and technology. The Marlins have built a state-of-the-art Academy in the Dominican Republic, reimagined the Jupiter Academy, the player development and performance center at Jupiter, Florida, developed the Marlins Youth Academy in the city of Hialeah, and continues to enhance the player, coaching, and staffing facilities at loanDepot park.

The Marlins have continuously invested in loanDepot park, transforming the ballpark into a go-to destination for a first-class fan experience and home to marquee events. In 2021, the Marlins opened the academy in the Dominican Republic, and then in 2024, the investments continued at the Marlins Spring Training site in Jupiter, with a multi-year major renovation project at the Jupiter Academy. With player development, recovery, and comfort a priority, the Marlins underwent a two-year renovation at loanDepot park to expand the Marlins clubhouse with top-of-the-line strength and conditioning, training, and recovery spaces, as well as create a new family room that brings the best care and amenities to players' families.

Additionally, loanDepot park has become a home for numerous marquee events through major upgrades, with the latest set for 2026 as the Marlins have partnered with industry leader The Cordish Companies to bring Miami Live!, a transformational entertainment development, to the ballpark campus. In recent years, loanDepot park has served as host to many marquee events, highlighted by the World Baseball Classic, NHL Winter Classic, Savannah Bananas, NFL Opening Night, concerts, and more.

Under the leadership of Mr. Sherman, the Marlins have reached the Postseason on two occasions. The first appearance was in the shortened 2020 season, during which the club swept the Chicago Cubs in the National League Wild Card Series, prior to falling short in the NL Division Series against the Atlanta Braves. The Marlins then reached the Postseason again in 2023, marking the first such time in a full season since 2003. In his tenure, the Marlins have had two managers win Manager of the Year (2020 and 2023), and players win Cy Young (2022), Batting Champion (2023), and Rawlings Gold Glove (2025) awards.

Mr. Sherman is currently Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of M4 Capital, having retired from his position as Chief Executive Officer of Private Capital Management ("PCM") in 2009. He launched PCM in 1986 and built it into the largest independent asset manager in the Southeastern United States prior to selling the firm to Legg Mason in 2001. Following the sale, he retained autonomy over PCM's portfolio management and investment research and led the company to a prestigious No. 1 ranking in the country as measured by Nelson's "World's Best Money Managers" for 10 years.

In February 2024, Mr. Sherman was named a recipient of the Horatio Alger Award. Mr. Sherman joined 10 other exceptional business, civic and cultural leaders from across North America in receiving 2024 honors by the Horatio Alger Association of Distinguished Americans, Inc., a nonprofit educational organization honoring the achievements of outstanding individuals and encouraging youth to pursue their dreams through higher education.

Mr. Sherman has invested professionally and personally in the South Florida community. He has two daughters and four grandchildren, and is married to Cynthia Sherman, a retired partner of international law firm Rogers & Wells. He and his wife are Lifetime Trustees for the Naples Children & Education Foundation supporting underprivileged and at-risk children in Collier County for more than 20 years. Mr. Sherman also formerly served on the Board of Directors of Artis-Naples, the premier center for the performing and visual arts in Southwest Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman founded the Bruce and Cynthia Sherman Charitable Foundation, which supports a variety of medical institutions and health initiatives and administers the Sherman Prize, which recognizes and rewards leading individuals who go above and beyond to make exceptional, pioneering contributions and inspire tomorrow's innovators in the fight to overcome Crohn's disease and ulcerative colitis.

Mr. Sherman was born in Auburn, New York, and grew up in Queens. He graduated from the University of Rhode Island in 1969 and earned his MBA from Bernard Baruch College in 1973.

In his role, Bendix oversees the entirety of baseball operations and works closely with leaders of each department to set the vision and promote an innovative, people-first culture.

In his two years overseeing Baseball Operations, Bendix has spearheaded a cultural change focused on innovation, thinking three years ahead, and being a good teammate. The results have shown in a short time, as the Marlins improved the win total by 17 games from 2024 to 2025, which is the largest year-over-year win improvement in a non-shortened season in club history. Additionally, a franchise-record four Minor League affiliates reached Postseason play in their respective levels, headlined by the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp who were crowned Triple-A National Champions.

During his tenure, the Marlins have made significant investments in personnel, facilities and technology, aligned with the organization's focus on getting better players and getting players better. The home clubhouse at loanDepot park has undergone a multiyear renovation to enhance and expand facilities for players, coaches and staff. Additionally, the club held a ribbon-cutting ceremony at the start of Spring Training for the newly renovated Jupiter Academy. The investment in Jupiter included the construction of a new performance center focused on development and recovery, enhanced clubhouses for major league and minor league players, a dedicated dining room, full kitchen and executive chef, upgraded batting cages with integrated technology, and a players lounge designed to foster collaboration and a unified clubhouse culture.

Prior to joining the Marlins organization, Bendix spent 15 years with the Tampa Bay Rays (2009-23). During his time with the Rays, they won three American League East Division titles and had eight playoff appearances, including five straight playoff appearances from 2019-23, and a World Series appearance in 2020.

Most recently, he served as the Rays Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager for two seasons. In his recent position with the Rays, Bendix assisted Tampa Bay's President of Baseball Operations in overseeing the Baseball Operations department, with a primary focus on the Major League level, including player evaluation and acquisition, roster management and daily functions of the club. Before his promotion to that role, he spent six seasons leading the baseball development department and served as vice president of baseball development from 2020-21.

Bendix earned a bachelor's degree in American studies from Tufts University, where he also founded Baseball Analysis at Tufts (BAT), the university's first-ever baseball club. He grew up in Cleveland Heights, Ohio as an avid baseball fan. He enjoys traveling, cooking, and exploring the South Florida food scene. Bendix is acclaimed as an excellent ping pong player. Beyond events and revenue growth, Ms. O'Connor has prioritized investment in technology and infrastructure to enhance both front office operations and the fan experience. PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

- Christopher earned his high school diploma in 2024 and surprised his mother, Rosa, with a trip back home to the Dominican Republic in September for his graduation ceremony. He completed courses, usually two at a time, while working around his busy baseball schedule. Christopher says math was his toughest subject.
- He is close friends with Giants shortstop Willy Adames. Both grew up in Santiago, located about two hours north of the Dominican Republic capital of Santo Domingo. They frequently work out and spend time together during offseasons. Christopher, who has likened Willy to a big brother, sports two horizontal black lines on his face for games in honor of his friend's similar look.
- His custom glove features nearly two-dozen smiley faces and the phrase amor y paz ("love and peace"). The glove reminds him to enjoy each moment and seize every opportunity to have fun and be a good teammate. His inspiration stemmed from a horrific injury he suffered as a 16-year-old Cubs prospect, when a broken glass door resulted in severe cuts in his left arm and wrist and around his left eye, requiring nearly 200 stitches.
- Christopher has an Instagram account where he showcases his work with Dominican youth baseball players: @amorypaz_org.

2025 SEASON IN REVIEW

2025 MIAMI MARLINS

The Miami Marlins completed the 2025 season, and the 33rd in franchise history, with a 79-83 record, finishing in third place in the National League East and four games under the .500 mark. Despite reaching a season-low, 16 games under .500 (25-41 record) on June 11, the Fish posted a 54-42 record over the 96-game span from June 13 through the end of the season, marking the sixth-best record in Major League Baseball in this span behind five other teams that all punched a ticket to the 2025 Postseason (Milwaukee, Philadelphia, Seattle, Toronto, and Boston).

FIGHTIN' FISH

The 2025 Marlins finished the year with 79 wins, recording a 17-game win improvement over the 2024 campaign (62-100) and marking the most significant year-over-year win total improvement in a non-shortened season in club history. The only larger win total jump came between the 2020 (31 wins) and 2021 (67 wins) seasons, following the 60-game regular season schedule due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Miami was one of three teams in baseball, and the only National League team, to achieve a double-digit win improvement, as its 17-game jump ranked third best in the Majors behind only Toronto (20, 74 W - 94 W) and Chicago-AL (19, 41 W - 60 W).

NEW SKIPPER IN TOWN

Marlins' first-year Manager Clayton McCullough led his club to a 79-83 record, tied for the third-most wins for a Marlins skipper in their first season under the helm with Jeff Torborg in 2012 and Don Mattingly in 2016, only trailing Jim Leyland (92 wins, 1997) and Skip Schumaker (84 wins, 2023). McCullough, who spent the 2021-25 seasons as the Dodgers' First Base Coach, was named the 17th Manager in Franchise history on Nov. 11, 2024, and now owns a 79-83 record in his first MLB managerial role, with his current .488 winning% ranking third on the all-time Marlins' skipper list behind Jack McKeon, .522 and Fredi González, .497 (minimum one full season).

REEL 'EM IN

The Miami Marlins finished the year ranking sixth in Major League Baseball and third in the National League with 1,388 hits, while their 61 games with 10+ hits led all NL clubs and ranked fourth in the Majors behind the Blue Jays (72), Astros (64), and Athletics (63). This marks the seventh time in the 33 years of the Club's history that the Fish finished in MLB's Top 10 in hits, joining these teams: 2023 (T6th, 1423), 2017 (3rd, 1497), 2016 (5th, 1460), 2015 (9th, 1420), 2009 (8th, 1493), and 2005 (9th, 1499).

MAKING WAVES IN THE MINORS

The Marlins Minor League system made history with four affiliates advancing to the Postseason: Triple-A Jacksonville, High-A Beloit, DSL Marlins, and DSL Miami, marking the most teams in a single season. The Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp capped the season as International League and Triple-A National Champions.

HOW SWEEP IT IS

During Miami's final road trip, which saw the Fish go 7-2 with seven-straight wins and back-to-back sweeps at Colorado and Texas, the Marlins completed their schedule with six sweeps, including five on the road (@ WSH, @SF, @ARI, vs. NYY, @COL, and @TEX). It tied the second-most road sweeps in a season for the Fish in club history, alongside the 2004 team, trailing only the 2009 team, which swept six away series.

ROAD WARRIORS

The 2025 Marlins secured a winning record on the road (41-40) for just the third time in club history (2020, 20-14, and 2009, 44-37), with their 41 road wins tied for the second-most wins in away games for a Marlins club alongside the 2011 and 2004 teams. The Fish were one of 10 teams in baseball to go over .500 away from home this season, as Miami's .506 winning pct. in away games was tied for the fifth-best mark in MLB, and tied for the third-best mark in the NL.

- From June 13-July 8, the Marlins tallied a franchise-record 11-straight wins on the road, surpassing the previous record of eight accomplished from July 16-Aug. 5, 1995. In this span, Miami swept three-straight road series (@WSH, @ SF, @ARI).

GONE STREAKING

Within Miami's 11-game winning streak in away games, they also won a season-best eight games in a row from June 22-July 1, marking the club's longest winning streak since the team moved to Miami in 2012. With a seven-game winning streak later in the year, from Sept. 16-23, the Marlins became one of eight teams in MLB this season with multiple winning streaks of seven-or-more games, and the only team with multiple such streaks in road games.

FISH WITH DOUBLE VISION

The Fish collected 272 doubles this season, ranking second in the National League behind Arizona (277) and sixth in Major League Baseball; the 272 doubles also mark the most for a Marlins' club since the 2011 team, which had 274 two-baggers, signifying the most since the team moved to Miami.

- Miami had six different players collect at least 20 doubles, including three rookies in C Agustín Ramírez, INF/OF Javier Sanoja, and INF Eric Wagman; it marked the fourth time in Marlins history that at least three rookies have reached the 20-double mark, and the first time since 2010 (Logan Morrison, Gaby Sánchez, and Giancarlo Stanton). The Marlins were the only team in MLB this season to have three rookies eclipse 20 doubles, and one of only three teams with multiple players achieving the feat (the Brewers and Athletics each had two).

HOME MEANS EVERYTHING

The Miami Marlins and loanDepot park eclipsed one million fans in attendance for the third season in a row, surpassing last year's attendance total as they hosted 1,157,888 fans across the 81-game home schedule. Additionally, loanDepot park saw five different sell-out crowds, marking the most in this ballpark's history. Among all MLB teams, the Marlins ranked top five in attendance percentage growth.

STRONG FINISH

The Miami Marlins earned six-consecutive series victories from July 11-Aug. 3 (@BAL, vs. KC, vs. SD, @MIL, @STL, vs. NYY), matching the longest streak in franchise history (June 5-27, 1997; credit: Elias Sports Bureau). The Fish also won 11 of 14 series played (11-2-1) from June 13-Aug. 3, posting a 30-14 record in this span to return to .500 (55-55) at the conclusion of the club's first-ever sweep of the Yankees from Aug. 1-3.

- With that run, the Marlins became the first MLB team to go from 16 or more games under .500 to a .500 record since the 2014 Rays, and the 15th team in MLB history ever to do so.
- The 30-14 record during this span also matched the club's best record in any 44-game span, in a single season, in club history. The feat was accomplished four times during the 2003 season, which lasted from June 18-Aug. 9, 2003.

TWO-OUT DAMAGE

The Marlins finished the year ranking in MLB's Top 5 in the following offensive categories with runners in scoring position and two outs: TB (278, 1st), RBI (224, 2nd), H (177, 2nd), AVG (.265, 3rd), OBP (.355, 3rd), and OPS (.772, 3rd). Miami's .265 AVG (177x667) trailed only Los Angeles-NL (.271, 167x616) and Milwaukee (.265, 185x697) for the lead in MLB and is the best such mark in club history in these situations, surpassing the previous mark of .260 (179x689) set by the 2009 club.

- 2B Xavier Edwards led Miami with 21 RBI and a .333 AVG (16x48) with RISP and two outs, drawing 11 walks against seven strikeouts in these situations.

CATCHING FIRE

With a 3-2 record in March, a 14-12 record in June, a 15-10 record in July, and a 14-11 record in September, the 2025 Marlins finished the campaign with four winning months under their belt. It marked the sixth time, and first since 2016, that the Marlins posted winning records in four-or-more months of the season (min. one game played), joining these teams: 2009 (5), 1995 (4), 1997 (4), 2008 (4), and 2016 (4). With back-to-back winning months in June and July, Miami secured winning records in consecutive months for the first time since June-August 2017.

LET THE KIDS PLAY

Marlins' rookies played in an MLB-leading 1046 games in 2025, 312 more than the second-ranked Athletics (734). Marlins rookies have accounted for 47.6% of Miami's AB (2638/5543), 48.1% of runs (341/709), 47.0% of hits (653/1388), 56.3% of doubles (153/272), and 49.3% of RBI (334/677), leading all MLB teams in each of those categories.

- After making his Major League debut for Miami on Aug. 1, OF Jakob Marsee led all qualified rookies in hits (61), doubles (18), extra-base hits (26), and stolen bases (14). His 18 doubles paced all MLB qualified hitters in this span while his 61 hits were tied for seventh over that span.
- C Agustín Ramírez paced all MLB rookies in doubles (33) while ranking first among NL rookies in runs (72), hits (124), total bases (222), home runs (21), and extra-base hits (55) while he ranked second in RBI (67) and tied for fourth in steals (16). He also became the first rookie catcher in MLB history to record 20+ homers and 10+ stolen bases in a season.
- C Liam Hicks (ranked 2nd among NL rookies with 43 BB), OF Heriberto Hernández (3rd among NL rookies with a .266 AVG), and INF/OF Javier Sanoja (T4th with 22 doubles) each also accounted for Miami's rookie success, making their way onto NL rookie leaderboards.

HOME RUN VARIETIES

The 2025 Marlins enjoyed their fair share of "rare" homer occurrences, including:

- An MLB-leading, nine pinch-hit home runs, tying the most for a Marlins' club in franchise history (also in 2009).
- Six pairs of back-to-back home runs, including two during the club's seven-game winning streak in September.
- Three walk-off homers, each of which came in a multi-HR game for the same player (Kyle Stowers, 2x, and Troy Johnston, 1x). The Marlins overall had 12 multi-homer games.

EL REGRESSO DEL CABALLO

Marlins ace RHP Sandy Alcantara, who set a club record with his fifth-career Opening Day start for the Fish on March 27 vs. Pittsburgh, led Miami's staff in wins (11), starts (31), and innings pitched (174.2) in his return from "Tommy John" surgery.

- After a 4-9 record and 7.22 ERA (73 ER/91.0 IP) in 18 starts before the All-Star Break, Alcantara posted a 7-3 mark and 3.33 ERA (31 ER/83.2 IP) in his final 13 starts from July 18-Sept. 26, completing 6.0 innings in 10 of those starts, and at least 7.0 innings in seven of those. His 83.2 innings pitched after the Break ranked second among all starters in the Majors, behind PHI's C. Sánchez (87.0 IP).
- He has also now made 60 starts with Miami of at least 7.0 innings pitched, allowing two earned runs or fewer, the most for a starter in club history.
- Alcantara now trails only RHP Ricky Nolasco for the lead in these categories on Miami's all-time pitching leaderboard: strikeouts (921), games started (169), innings pitched (1,067.0).

STOWERS POWER

OF Kyle Stowers highlighted the greater half of the Marlins season, earning numerous honors and representing the club at the 95th MLB All-Star Game on July 15 in Atlanta, Ga., where he participated in the All-Star Game's "Swing-Off" and hit one home run in three swings. He earned National League Player of the Month honors for July, while also taking home two NL Player of the Week awards (May 4 and July 13). Additionally, he was named the club's MVP by the Miami chapter of the BBWAA and was tabbed as the Marlins' nominee for the 2025 Heart & Hustle Award by the MLBPAA.

- Stowers was named the NL Player of the Month after slashing .364/.451/.818 (28x77) with 16 runs, five doubles, 10 home runs, and 20 RBI in 24 July games, leading National League qualified hitters with his 1.269 OPS and 239 wRC+ (per FanGraphs). It marked the first such honor of his career as he became the first Marlin to be named a National League Player of the Month since outfielder Giancarlo Stanton in August 2017.
- With back-to-back multi-homer games on both sides of the All-Star Break (July 13 at BAL and July 18 vs. KC), he became the second player in MLB history and the first since Ty Cobb in 1925 to record at least eight hits, five home runs, and 11 RBI in a two-game span, as his five home runs in two games marked the most for a Marlins hitter in franchise history. Per @SlangsonSports/Elias, he also became the first player in MLB history with five homers in a two-game span, including a walk-off home run.

MONTH OF THE GOAT(S)

Aiding Miami in its 15-10 record in July, the Marlins' pitching staff led MLB with a 2.60 ERA (64 ER/221.1 IP), which was also the lowest July mark in club history. The 2015 Marlins previously held this record, posting a 2.79 ERA (67 ER/216.0 IP). The mark also stands as the second-best team ERA in any month in club history, behind only April 2005 (2.28 ERA; 50 ER/197.2 IP), and marked the fifth month in club history the staff posted a sub-3.00 mark. Leading the charge for Miami's staff in July was RHP Eury Pérez, who posted a 1.29 ERA (4 ER/28.0 IP) and 0.64 WHIP in five starts, both setting club records for the month. He allowed just 13 hits, four runs, and five walks, with 32 strikeouts, while leading all Major League starters in WHIP and ranking sixth in ERA.

MARSEE MADNESS

OF Jakob Marsee was named the National League Rookie of the Month for August, slashing .352/.430/.629 (37x105) with 18 runs, 11 doubles, three triples, four home runs, and 25 RBI while appearing in all 30 games for Miami during the month after making his Major League debut on Aug. 1 vs. New York-AL. In addition to his MLB honor, Marsee was named the Triple-A Jacksonville MVP at the Miami Marlins Minor League Award Ceremony.

- He became the sixth different Marlins position player to win the award and the 11th all-time. His 25 RBI in 30 games in August were the most for any NL rookie in a month during the 2025 season, while he became just the fourth Marlins rookie in club history to reach 25 RBI in a single month: Kevin Millar in July 1999 (26), Bruce Aven in June 1999 (25), and Justin Bour in September 2015 (25) (courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau).
- He led the National League in fWAR (2.1) for the month, and ranked second in wRC+ (188) and wOBA (.445), behind Milwaukee's Brice Turang (200 wRC+/.458 wOBA), per FanGraphs.

HENRI-K'S

RHP Ronny Henriquez set a franchise record with at least one strikeout in 60 of his 68 appearances out of the Marlins' bullpen, as his 98 total strikeouts rank third on the Marlins' all-time reliever leaderboard, trailing only RHP Kyle Barraclough (113 K in 2016) and LHP Tanner Scott (104 K in 2023). Among all MLB relievers in 2025, his 98 strikeouts were tied for the second-most in the NL (w/NYM's E. Díaz) behind only SD's J. Estrada (108). The pair ranked tied for seventh in MLB.

2025 RECAP

A banner year for Jacksonville ended with its first Triple-A National Championship in team history and its first International League Championship since 1968. It was Jacksonville's eighth league championship in franchise history and its first since the Jacksonville Suns won the 2014 Southern League title. It also marked the first championship in the Jumbo Shrimp era, the team's first Triple-A title and its fourth league championship as since becoming a Marlins affiliate in 2009 (2009, 2010, 2014, 2025). Jacksonville led Triple-A with 89 wins, its winningest season since 1964. The Jumbo Shrimp won the First Half International League Championship with a 47-28 record.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

1997 POSTSEASON NOTES

POSTSEASON FIRSTS

The Florida Marlins played their first franchise Postseason game on September 30, 1997, a 2-1 win over the San Francisco Giants in Miami. Kevin Brown threw the first playoff pitch in franchise history to Darryl Hamilton. Brown collected the first Florida Postseason strikeout, fanning J.T. Snow to lead off the second inning. Brown retired the first 14 Giants he faced before allowing the first hit to an opponent, a single to Stan Javier with two outs in the fifth inning. Florida's first Postseason batter was Devon White, who faced Kirk Rueter and popped out to second baseman Jeff Kent. The first Marlin to reach base was Gary Sheffield on a two-out first-inning walk. The first Florida hit came off the bat of Bobby Bonilla, following the Sheffield walk. The first run allowed by Florida came in the top of the seventh when Bill Mueller hit a leadoff homer. The Marlins scored their first run in the bottom of the inning, on a Charles Johnson leadoff homer.

A FIRST FOR EVERYTHING

The Marlins became the first team to qualify for the Postseason and win the World Series as a Wild Card. At the time, Florida was the fastest expansion team to win the World Series, done in their fifth season. The Arizona Diamondbacks surpassed Florida's mark, winning their World Series title in 2001, their fourth season.

RECORD WINNING STREAKS

The Marlins were the third team in Postseason history to sweep their first playoff series in team history, joining the 1914 Braves, who swept the Philadelphia A's, and the 1969 New York Mets, who swept Atlanta. Florida began its Postseason run with four straight wins, only the second team in baseball history to have a franchise-opening playoff win streak of four or more games. The Braves won five straight games to open their Postseason history, a four-game sweep in the 1914 World Series, and a win over Cleveland in the 1948 Postseason.

NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES NOTES

SWEEPING SUCCESS

With their 3-0 sweep over the Giants, the Marlins became the fastest expansion team to win a Postseason series (surpassed by Arizona in 2001). Prior to the Marlins, the fastest NL team to win a playoff series was the New York Mets, in their eighth season. The Marlins won each of the three games over the Giants in comeback fashion, including games one and two in their final at-bats. The 1997 Marlins led the Majors with 24 last at-bat victories in the regular season.

NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES NOTES

LIVÁN MOST VALUABLE, PART 1

Liván Hernández went 2-0 with a 0.84 ERA in two appearances (one start) in the NLCS vs. Atlanta. He became the first pitcher in LCS history to record a win as both a starter (Game 5) and as a reliever (Game 3) in the same series. In Game 5, Hernández established an NLCS record and tied an LCS record with 15 strikeouts, the second-highest strikeout game in Postseason history. His 2-1, three-hit win in Game 5 was his first Major League complete game.

NUMBERS DON'T ALWAYS MATCH UP

The 1997 Marlins became the second team to advance to the World Series, despite posting a lower batting average and higher ERA than their LCS opponent. The Braves outhit the Marlins .253 to .199 and had a 2.60 ERA, compared to Florida's 3.57. The first time it happened was in 1992 when the Braves topped the Pittsburgh Pirates in a series managed by Bobby Cox and Jim Leyland.

WORLD SERIES NOTES

LIVÁN MOST VALUABLE, PART 2

Liván Hernández (2-0, 5.27 ERA) became the second rookie in MLB history to win the World Series MVP award, joining Larry Sherry of Los Angeles-NL, who claimed the honor in 1959. Hernández also became the first rookie pitcher in 50 years to win two World Series starts. The last rookie to do it was the Yankees' Spec Shea in 1947. Hernández became the youngest pitcher to win a World Series opener at the age of 22 years, 7 months, and 28 days. He was the first rookie to win a World Series game since Atlanta's Mike Stanton on October 23, 1991 (G4 vs. MIN), and the first rookie starter to win since Baltimore's Storm Davis on October 15, 1983 (G4 at PHI). Prior to Hernández, the last rookie starter to win a World Series opener was Philadelphia's Bob Walk (October 14, 1980 vs. KC).

JIM LEYLAND

Marlins manager Jim Leyland became the first World Series manager not to have played in a Major League game since Boston's John McNamara in 1986. The last National League skipper without Major League playing experience was Philadelphia's Paul Owens in 1983. Leyland became the first manager to win his World Series debut since Cincinnati's Lou Piniella on October 16, 1990, vs. Oakland.

BRRRR

In Game 3 of the World Series on October 21, the Marlins and Indians played in 15-degree wind chill temperatures, the coldest World Series game ever played, according to records kept.

PLAYING EXTRAS

Game 7 of the World Series, won by Florida, 3-2, on an Edgar Rentería single off Charles Nagy in the bottom of the 11th inning, was the third Game Seven in World Series history to go to extra innings. The others were played in 1924 and 1991.

NOTABLE ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Jeff Conine became the first player to go from the Expansion Draft to the World Series with the same team. Conine was selected from Kansas City with the 22nd pick in the 1992 Expansion Draft. Conine and Alex Arias are the first players to play for a team in its inaugural season and reach the Fall Classic since the Mets' Ed Kranepool in 1969.

A WINNING DEBUT

The Marlins won their first-ever World Series game on October 18, 7-4, over Cleveland at home. The prior team to win their first-ever World Series game was Toronto in 1992.

ALTERNATING WINS

The Marlins won World Series games 1, 3, 5, and 7, while the Indians took games 2, 4, and 6. It marked the third time in World Series history that teams alternated victories in all seven games, joining the 1909 Fall Classic between the Pirates and Tigers, and the Yankees and Giants in 1962.

A HEART-STOPPER

Game Seven of the World Series marked the fourth time in World Series history that a winner-take-all game in the Fall Classic went into extra innings, along with the 1991 Series (MIN vs. ATL), the 1924 Series (WAS vs. NYG), and the 1912 Series (BOS vs. NYG). Overall, it marked the seventh time that a deciding World Series game went to extra innings, along with the 1933, 1939, and 1996 games. The 1997 Series was the 10th time a Fall Classic was won by the home team in the bottom of the ninth inning or later (with 1912, 1924, 1927, 1929, 1935, 1953, 1960, 1991, and 1993) and the fifth time in a winner-take-all situation.

2003 POSTSEASON NOTES

FAMILIAR WATERS

The Marlins entered the 2003 Postseason as the National League's Wild Card entry, the fourth team in Major League Baseball history to enter the playoffs as the Wild Card multiple times. The Marlins (also Wild Card in 1997), joined the New York Mets (1999 and 2000), the New York Yankees (1995 and 1997), and the Boston Red Sox (1998, 1999 and 2003). Florida is one of three Major League Baseball expansion teams to make the Postseason at least twice in their first 11 seasons. Kansas City came into play in 1969 and made the Postseason in 1976, 1977, and 1978. Arizona began play in 1998 and saw Postseason action in 1999, 2001, and 2002. The Marlins are one of six teams to advance to the World Series as a Wild Card team and one of four (with the Angels, Red Sox, and Giants) to win it.

SIX STRAIGHT

The Marlins concluded the World Series with wins in each of their six playoff series to open the Club's franchise history. The six straight playoff series wins surpass the mark of consecutive Postseason series wins to begin a team's playoff history, done by the Boston Red Sox from 1903-1918.

A WILD POSTSEASON

During the 2003 Postseason, the Marlins posted three extra-inning victories, notched three wins when trailing by three or more runs, and collected four wins in their final at-bats. According to Jayson Stark on ESPN.com, the Marlins became the fourth team in Postseason history with three extra-inning wins and the fourth team to win three games when trailing by three or more runs. Additionally, no Postseason team had ever won more than four games in their last at-bat.

RECORD-SETTING CROWDS

The NLCS Game 4 crowd of 65,829 against the Cubs on October 12 set a new LCS attendance record, surpassing the previous mark of 65,476 (HOU @ PHI on 10/8/80). The Marlins also set a DS attendance record, drawing 65,464 in Game 4 vs. San Francisco (October 4). The October 23 World Series crowd of 65,975 was the largest World Series crowd since Game 7 of the 1997 Series when the Marlins drew 67,204 to see Florida host the Cleveland Indians.

NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

A SERIES FOR THE AGES

The NL Division Series between the Marlins and Giants featured 72-year-old Jack McKeon and 68-year-old Felipe Alou. McKeon was the oldest manager to participate in Postseason play in Major League Baseball history, while Felipe Alou was the fourth-oldest. Below is a look at the list:

JACK McKEON	2003 FLORIDA	72 YEARS OLD
Casey Stengel	1960 New York (AL)	70 years old
Davey Johnson	2012 Washington	69 years old
Connie Mack	1937 Philadelphia (AL)	68 years old
Tommy Lasorda	1995 Los Angeles (NL)	68 years old
Felipe Alou	2003 San Francisco	68 years old
Jim Leyland	2013 Detroit	68 years old

The two opposing skippers in this NLDS, McKeon and Alou, had a combined age of 140 years, the highest combined age of any two managers facing each other in Postseason history. Below is a look:

COMB. AGE	YEAR	TEAMS	MANAGER
140	2003	FLA-SF (DS)	McKeon / Alou
128	1958	NYY-ATL (WS)	Stengel / Haney
126	1957	ATL-NYY (WS)	Haney / Stengel
123	1949	BRO-NYY (WS)	Shotton / Stengel
119	2013	DET-BOS (CS)	Leyland / Farrell
118	1953	BRO-NYY (WS)	Dressen / Stengel

The Marlins and Giants combined to leave 30 men on base on October 3, setting a new NLDS record. The previous mark was 26, done by the Giants (16) and Mets (10) in a 13-inning contest on October 7, 2000.

WHAT WAYS TO WIN IT

The Marlins closed out their series with the Giants in rather historic ways. On Friday, October 3, the Marlins downed the Giants, 4-3 in 11 innings. The Giants scored an unearned run in the top of the 11th and the Marlins countered with two unearned tallies in the bottom. It marked the first time since Game 8 of the 1912 World Series that a team came from behind to win a Postseason game with two unearned runs in the bottom of an extra inning, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

The Marlins followed that classic ending with more excitement on Saturday afternoon, October 4, when the Fish ended the NLDS with a 7-6 win over the Giants. The game ended as Jeff Conine threw out J.T. Snow at home plate on a Jeffrey Hammonds single to left. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the event marked the first time in Major League Baseball Postseason history that a series ended with the tying run being thrown out at home plate.

CABRERA MATCHES POSTSEASON MARK

Miguel Cabrera went 4x5 in Game 4 of the NLDS vs. San Francisco. The four hits tied a Major League Postseason record for hits by a rookie, joining NYY's Derek Jeter (1996 ALCS G1), LAD's Chad Fonville (1995 NLDS G2), NYG's Freddie Lindstrom (1924 WS G5) and STL Browns' Joe Garagiola (1946 WS G4).

Cabrera had four home runs and 12 RBI in the 2003 Postseason, the best single-season rookie home run and RBI marks in MLB playoff history. Entering this Postseason, Willie McGee (1982 STL) held the rookie RBI mark at 10. Hideki Matsui had 11 RBI in the 2003 playoffs, one behind Cabrera.

NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

PINCH ME

Mike Lowell became the sixth player in MLB post-season history to hit a pinch-hit home run in extra innings when he homered in the top of the 11th inning on October 7 at Chicago. Below is a look at the all-time Postseason extra-inning PH homer list:

MIKE LOWELL (FLA)..... G1 2003 NLCS at CHC
Trot Nixon (BOS)..... G3 2003 ALDS vs. Oak
Mike Pagliarulo (MIN).....G3 1991 ALCS at TOR
George Vukovich (PHI)..... G4 1981 NLDS vs. MON
John Lowenstein (BAL) .....G1 1979 ALCS vs. CAL
Dusty Rhodes (SF)..... G1 1954 WS vs. CLE

HOMERS SHALL FLY

The Marlins hit a team Postseason-high four home runs on October 7 at Chicago. Three of the homers (by Rodriguez, Encarnacion, and Cabrera) came in the third inning, marking the first time in NLCS history that a team homered three times in an inning. Cabrera's and Encarnación's homers were back-to-back, the seventh time in NLCS history that a team had players hit back-to-back homers.

A RECORD-SETTING NIGHT

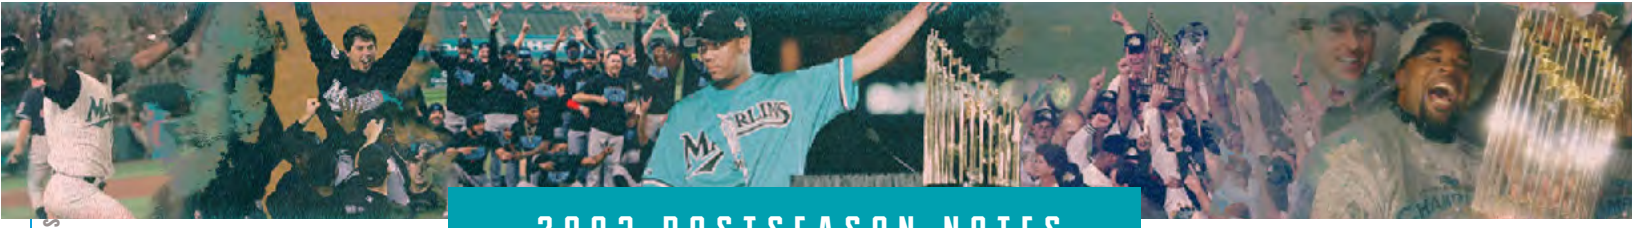
The 17 extra-base hits by the Marlins and Cubs on October 7 set a new LCS record, surpassing the previous mark of 12, done on October 5, 1975 (OAK and BOS) and October 9, 1993 (PHI and ATL). The seven HRs by both teams also set a new LCS record.

CABRERA AMONG THE YOUNGEST

On October 7 at Chicago, Miguel Cabrera became the second-youngest player to homer in the Postseason, at 20 years, 182 days. The youngest player to go deep in the playoffs was Atlanta's Andruw Jones (19.178) on 10/17/96 vs. STL.

BECKETT'S BEST

The Marlins forced a Game 6 in the NLCS as RHP Josh Beckett threw the first complete game of his career (regular and Postseason) on October 12. The two-hit shutout by Beckett tied the NLCS record for fewest hits allowed in a complete game, joining CIN's Ross Grimley (10/10/72), NY's Jon Matlack (10/7/73), and SF's Dave Dravecky (10/7/87). Beckett's effort was the 15th complete game shutout in NLCS history. Beckett became the first pitcher to shut out the Cubs in a Postseason game since Boston's Babe Ruth, who blanked the Cubs in Game 1 of the 1918 World Series.



2003 POSTSEASON NOTES

DONTRELLE WITH THE BAT

Dontrelle Willis became the first Marlins pitcher to collect a multi-hit game in Postseason play as he went 3x3 on October 4 vs. SF. Willis' three hits set a Postseason rookie pitcher record. He was the first pitcher to post a three-hit Postseason game since LA's Orel Hershiser did it in Game 2 of the 1988 World Series vs. Oakland.

IN SELECT COMPANY

According to research by ESPN, Josh Beckett became the third pitcher in Postseason history to throw a complete game shutout, allowing two hits or less and fanning 10 or more. Beckett joins Roger Clemens (2000 ALCS vs. SEA, 15 K) and Big Ed Walsh (1906 WS vs. CHC, 12 K) on that list.

IN AN ELIMINATION GAME

According to Jayson Stark of ESPN.com, Beckett became the fourth pitcher in the last 40 years to pitch a CG SHO with his team facing elimination (excluding G7's in LCS or WS or G5's in DS). Beckett joined the list with Curt Schilling (1993 WS), Danny Jackson (1985 ALCS), and Joe Coleman (1972 ALCS).

BIG INNING

The Marlins scored all eight of their runs in the eighth inning on October 14 at Chicago in an 8-3 win. The eight-run inning established a Marlins playoff record, surpassing their previous best of seven, done in the ninth inning of Game 3 of the 1997 World Series (October 21). The eight-run inning also tied an overall Marlins record for runs scored in an inning, done for the ninth time overall and the first time since July 25, 2003 vs. PHI. The Fish were one run from tying the all-time NLCS record (nine), done by St. Louis in the second inning on October 13, 1985 vs. LA.

According to ESPN, the Marlins became the fifth team in LCS history to come back from a three-run or greater deficit in Postseason play to win when facing elimination, and the first since Game 5 of the 1986 ALCS (Game 5 - Boston at California).

BACK FROM 3-1

The Marlins became the fourth team in LCS history (since 1985) to overcome a 3-1 deficit to capture the pennant. Prior to Florida's accomplishment, only one NL team had done it, the 1996 Atlanta Braves, who won three straight over St. Louis to advance to the World Series. Below is a look at the list of 3-1 LCS comebacks:

YEAR	LCS COMEBACKS	WORLD SERIES RESULT
1985	KC over Toronto	KC over STL (4-3)
1986	Boston over California	NYM over BOS (4-3)
1996	Atlanta over St. Louis	NYY over ATL (4-2)
2003	Florida over Chicago	FLA over NYY (4-2)
2007	Boston over Cleveland	BOS over COL (4-0)

AN MVP PERFORMANCE

Marlins catcher Pudge Rodríguez was named the NLCS Most Valuable Player, as he hit .321 (9x28) with two home runs and 10 RBI. The 10 RBI set a new NLCS record, surpassing the previous mark of nine, done by San Francisco's Matt Williams in 1989. Rodríguez became the fifth catcher in NLCS history to win MVP honors. Pudge joined STL's Darrell Porter (1982), ATL's Javy Lopez (1996), ATL's Eddie Pérez (1999) and SF's Benito Santiago (2002).

A TOUGH TRICK TURNED

The Marlins advanced to the World Series by winning consecutive road games trailing three games to one, a feat done for the fifth time in Postseason history: 1958 (NYY over MIL Braves in WS), 1968 (DET over STL in WS), 1979 (PIT over BAL in WS), 1985 (KC over TOR in ALCS) and 2003 (FLA over CHC in NLCS).

WORLD SERIES

The Marlins became the first team in MLB history to reach the World Series as a Wild Card entry twice.

OF HISTORIC SIGNIFICANCE

The Marlins became the third expansion team to win multiple World Series, joining the New York Mets and Toronto Blue Jays. The Jays won their two World Championships in their first 17 seasons, while the Mets did it in their first 25 campaigns. The Marlins won two World Championships in their first 11 Major League seasons. The Marlins became the first team in the post-expansion era to accomplish the feat.

JACK MCKEON

Marlins' manager Jack McKeon became the second manager in Major League Baseball history to lead his team to a World Series championship after taking over his club during the season. The first manager to accomplish the feat was the Yankees' Bob Lemon in 1978 when he replaced Billy Martin.

EXPANSION NOTABLES

The Marlins were one of five expansion teams to reach the World Series multiple times. The New York Mets lead the list with five Fall Classic entries (win in 1969, loss in 1973, win in 1986, loss in 2000, and loss in 2015). The Kansas City Royals have the second-most with four (loss in 1980, win in 1985, loss in 2014, and win in 2015), while the Marlins, San Diego Padres (loss in 1984 and loss in 1998), and Toronto Blue Jays (win in 1992, win in 1993) have each made two World Series appearances.

AGE IS A STATE OF MIND

Marlins' manager Jack McKeon became the oldest skipper to lead his team to the World Series, as the Series opened with McKeon 72 years and 329 days old. McKeon is ahead of Casey Stengel (70.067 in 1960 with NYY), Connie Mack (68.283 in 1931 with PHA), Stengel (68.063 in 1958 with NYY), Mack (67.283 in 1930 with PHA) and Stengel (67.064 in 1957 with NYY). McKeon was the first manager since Philadelphia's Paul Owens (in 1983) to lead his team to the World Series after not beginning the season as that club's skipper.

HOW DO YOU DO, MR. GONZÁLEZ

Alex González hit a walk-off homer off the Yankees' Jeff Weaver in the bottom of the 12th inning on October 22. It marked the first walk-off homer in Marlins Postseason history and holds significance in baseball history. It marked the 13th time that a World Series game ended on a home run and the first time since October 31, 2001 (G4 vs. ARI), when Derek Jeter homered in the bottom of the 10th inning.

According to research done by ESPN, González was the third player in baseball history to have his first career Postseason homer come as a World Series walk off, joining Dusty Rhodes (1954 NYG vs. CLE) and Eddie Mathews (1957 MIL Braves vs. NYY). ESPN also noted that González was the third player to hit a walk-off homer against the Yankees in World Series play, joining Bill Mazeroski (1960 G7, with PIT) and Mathews (1957 G4, with MIL).

A PENNY FOR YOUR THOUGHTS

RHP Brad Penny went 2-0 with a 2.19 ERA in two World Series starts against the Yankees. Penny became the 13th pitcher to beat the Yankees twice in the same World Series, joining Sandy Koufax, Bob Gibson, and Randy Johnson as the only four to do so in the last 40 years.

BECKETT NAMED WORLD SERIES MVP

Josh Beckett (1-1, 1.10 ERA in WS) became the youngest World Series MVP since 22-year-old Liván Hernández claimed the honor for the wMarlins in 1997. Beckett became the first pitcher since Minnesota's Jack Morris in 1991 to pitch a complete-game shutout in a deciding World Series game, the 19th overall in baseball history. It was the first complete-game shutout in a World Series game since Arizona's Randy Johnson on October 28, 2001 at New York. Beckett's five hits were the fewest hits in a deciding complete game shutout since Baltimore's Scott McGregor (5) in 1983. He became the youngest pitcher to win a deciding World Series game (23 years, 5 months, 10 days) since Kansas City's Bret Saberhagen (21.6.16) in 1985. Beckett fanned 47 batters in the 2003 Postseason, tying Randy Johnson (2001) for second-most strikeouts in a single Postseason behind Arizona's Curt Schilling in 2001 (56).

BOTTOM FEEDERS

The Marlins entered the COVID-delayed 2020 season coming off a 57-105 record in 2019, beating the Philadelphia Phillies on Opening Day in July and becoming the first team to win at least seven of its first eight games after losing 105 or more the previous year since the St. Louis Perfectos, a team that featured Cy Young, began 7-1 in 1899 (Stats, Inc.). The Perfectos would finish the season 84-67, good for fifth in the National League. According to Elias Sports Bureau, Miami became just the third team in MLB history to win seven of its first eight games, joining the Perfectos (7-1 after 39-111) and the 2003 Kansas City Royals (8-0 after 62-100).

On Sept. 25, 2020, the Miami Marlins (31-29) became the second team in MLB history to make the Postseason in the year following a 100-loss season.

UNPRECEDENTED CIRCUMSTANCES

The Marlins left Miami on July 21 for what was supposed to be a six-day road trip with two exhibition games in Atlanta and the season-opening series in Philadelphia before returning home to loanDepot park on July 27. After the completion of the Phillies series on Sunday, July 26, the team was quarantined in their Philadelphia hotel for eight days, the team resumed play on the road for what would end up being 23-day road trip. Miami made 60 roster moves on the trip and went 9-4 in 13 games.

NATIONAL LEAGUE WILD CARD SERIES

WILD CARD HOPEFULS

The Marlins returned to a familiar spot, fighting for a spot in the National League Division Series after landing their third Wild Card berth in as many playoff appearances. The 1997 Marlins were the first team in the Wild-Card Era (began in 1995) to win a World Series as a Wild Card team, and the 2003 Marlins became the third team to do so (following the 2002 Anaheim Angels). Since then, it has been done by the 2004 Boston Red Sox, 2011 San Francisco Giants, 2019 Washington Nationals, and 2023 Texas Rangers.

ENTER SANDMAN

In Game 1 of the National League Wild Card Series against the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field, RHP Sandy Alcantara surrendered just one run (solo home run) over 6.2 innings before OF Corey Dickerson hit a go-ahead three-run homer in the seventh inning to put the Marlins up for good. Dickerson, who had seven home runs during the regular season, only had one go-ahead home run in 2020 prior to his Postseason shot.

SIXTO SENSATION

Another low-scoring affair in Game 2 was due to the credit of 22-year-old Dominican-born rookie Sixto Sánchez, who tossed 5.0 scoreless innings with 6 strikeouts, allowing only four hits. Sanchez, ranked by MLB Pipeline as the Marlins' No. 1 prospect ahead of the 2020 season, made his Major League debut on Aug. 22, 2020 at Washington. He went on to post a 3.46 ERA (39.0 IP/15 ER) in seven starts through the end of the 2020 Regular Season with 11 walks, 33 strikeouts, and a 3-2 record. Included in that record was a seven-inning complete game victory on Sept. 13 vs. Philadelphia in which he held the Phillies to one run on three hits.

CLUTCH COOP

In a stalemate between starting pitchers (RHP Sixto Sanchez and RHP Yu Darvish, who finished 2nd in NL Cy Young voting in 2020), Miami broke through with two outs in the seventh inning thanks to INF Garrett Cooper's first career Postseason home run. The solo shot opened the gates for the Marlins offense, who tacked on one more run in the inning on OF Magneuris Sierra's RBI-single to score pinch-runner Lewis Brinson.

SAVING THE DAY

RHP Brandon Kintzler converted 12 of his 14 save opportunities during the regular season and closed each of the two games Miami took from the Cubs in the NLWCS. Kintzler, who entered in the ninth with the Marlins up 5-1 in Game 1, surrendered a leadoff double to Wilson Contreras before retiring the next three batters to secure Miami's first Postseason win since 2003. In Game 2, two days later, Kintzler again allowed a leadoff double. The veteran right-hander struck out the next three batters to record his first career Postseason save and send the Marlins to the NLDS.

AGAINST ALL ODDS

Miami solidified its sweep over Chicago-NL, becoming one of three NL teams to sweep the three-game set in the restructured Postseason bracket and the first team in MLB history to win a Postseason series after having a 100-loss season. The franchise advanced to 7-0 in a Postseason series dating back to 1997.

NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

EXCEEDED EXPECTATIONS

Miami fell to Atlanta in the NLDS, losing the first three games and scoring a total of five runs, all of which came in Game 1. It marked the first time the Marlins dropped a Postseason series, as the club won World Series titles the only other times they reached in 1997 and 2003. The Marlins were measured to have just a 0.2% chance to make the Postseason prior to 2020 Opening Day.

2023 POSTSEASON NOTES

GET WILD MIAMI

The Marlins clinched a National League Wild Card spot, marking the fourth Postseason appearance in club history and first since 2020. The last time the Marlins reached the Postseason in a full season was 2003, when the club won the World Series as a Wild Card.

In securing the second National League Wild Card position this season, the Marlins returned to a familiar position, as it marked the fourth time (of four total Postseason appearances) that the club made its way into the Postseason as a Wild Card seed. In 1997, the Marlins became the first team in MLB history to win the World Series as a Wild Card team (Wild Card Era began in 1995). Then, in 2003, the Marlins became the only team in MLB to win the World Series two times as a Wild Card team, and still hold that title.

Miami earned the second Wild Card spot in the National League, finishing the regular season tied with Arizona who they went 4-2 against in 2023 to win the first tiebreaker.

IN SKIP WE TRUST

Rookie manager Skip Schumaker guided the Marlins to a 84-78 record and .522 winning percentage this past season. He became the third Marlins manager to secure a winning record in their first full season managing the team, joining Jim Leyland (92-70; 1997) and Jack McKeon (83-79; 2004), with the 84 wins marking the second-most wins for a manager in their first full season. Both Leyland and McKeon had previous managing experience prior to becoming the Marlins manager.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

On the 30th night of September, the Marlins faced off against the Pirates in Pittsburgh, Pa. with their magic number at one. In a bullpen game for Miami, RHP JT Chargois started the night as the first of eight pitchers used in the game before closer LHP Tanner Scott entered in the ninth with a 7-3 lead. Scott, who was later named the National League Reliever of the Month for September, struck out PIT's Endy Rodriguez as the final out to earn his 11th save of the season and send Miami to the Postseason.

The Marlins offense in the clinching effort was led by veteran 1B Josh Bell, who Miami acquired at the August trade deadline from Cleveland and CF Jazz Chisholm Jr., with each player driving in multiple runs. 2B Jon Berti and DH Jorge Soler also recorded multi-hit efforts.

NATIONAL LEAGUE WILD CARD SERIES

SO WE MEET AGAIN

The 84-78 Marlins, who went 17-9 in September and won their final series of the regular season at Pittsburgh, solidified the No. 2 Wild Card Seed to line up with the No. 1 Wild Card Seed Philadelphia Phillies in the National League Wild Card Series at Citizens Bank Park in Philadelphia, Pa. It marked the club's first-ever Postseason series against the NL East rival Phillies and their seventh series matchup in 2023, with the Marlins faring 7-6 in the first 13 games.

305 TO MY CITY

South Florida-native LHP Jesús Luzardo got the nod as Miami's Game 1 starter on Oct. 3 at Philadelphia. The southpaw, who had recently celebrated his 26th birthday, was coming off a 208-strikeout season for Miami, the third-most by a Marlin in franchise history as he set a new record for a Marlins lefty. Luzardo was taxed for three runs on eight hits over 4.0 innings with five strikeouts and no walks.

RING THE BELL

The hottest Marlins hitter in Philadelphia was 1B Josh Bell, as he went 4x8 with two doubles and one RBI in the series. This included a three-hit effort in Game 1 with two doubles to become the first player in Marlins history to knock two doubles in his Postseason debut with the club, and had extended his streak of four doubles in four games dating back to Sept. 29 at Pittsburgh.

Bell joined Dontrelle Willis on Oct. 24, 2003 as the only Marlins with three hits in their Postseason debut with the club. He also joined Juan Pierre, Gary Sheffield, and Bobby Bonilla as the only players in club history to record four hits in their first two Postseason games with the Marlins.

LOUD IS AN UNDERSTATEMENT

LHP Braxton Garrett, who started Game 2, tossed just 3.0 innings and allowed two runs on three hits with one walk (56 pitches) before the Marlins bullpen surrendered five more runs. Miami ultimately dropped the series to Philadelphia, 0-2, scoring a combined two runs in the two games and going 3x10 with runners in scoring position.

Prior to the regular season, the Marlins had only a 23.6 percent chance to make the Postseason.

MARLINS NO-HITTERS

AL LEITER - MAY 11, 1996
JOE ROBBIE STADIUM

Colorado	000	000	000	--	0	0	0
Florida	620	012	00x	--	11	11	0

Al Leiter (2 bb, 6 so, 104 pitches) tossed the first no-hitter in Club history. It was the largest margin of victory in a no-hitter since St. Louis's Bob Gibson (also 11-0) on August 14, 1971 vs. Pittsburgh.

KEVIN BROWN - JUNE 10, 1997
3COM PARK AT CANDLESTICK POINT

Florida	000	010	701	--	9	8	0
San Fran.	000	000	000	--	0	0	3

A HBP was all that separated Kevin Brown (7 so, 99 pitches) from a perfect game. He was just the second pitcher in MLB history to fall a HBP short of perfection (two others since).

A.J. BURNETT - MAY 12, 2001
QUALCOMM STADIUM

Florida	002	010	000	--	3	7	0
San Diego	000	000	000	--	0	0	3

A.J. Burnett walked nine and struck out seven in his no-hitter in San Diego. He and the Reds' Jim Maloney (8/19/65 vs. CHC) are the only pitchers in MLB history with 9+ BB in a 9.0-inn. no-no.

ANIBAL SANCHEZ - SEPTEMBER 6, 2006
DOLPHINS STADIUM

Arizona	000	000	000	--	0	0	0
Florida	010	100	00x	--	2	5	1

Anibal Sanchez (4 bb, 6 so, 103 pitches) no-hit Arizona in his 13th career MLB start. He was just the second Venezuelan to record a no-hitter in MLB history, and the 19th rookie.

HENDERSON ALVAREZ - SEPTEMBER 29, 2013
LOANDEPOT PARK

Detroit	000	000	000	--	0	0	1
Miami	000	000	001	--	1	6	1

Henderson Alvarez (bb, 4 so, 99 pitches) threw the first Closing Day no-hitter in MLB since Mike Witt in 1984. It was also the first no-hitter clinched in walk-off fashion since 1997.

EDINSON VOLQUEZ - JUNE 3, 2017
LOANDEPOT PARK

Arizona	000	000	000	--	0	0	1
Miami	000	100	02x	--	3	9	0

Edinson Volquez (2 bb, 10 so, 98 pitches) threw the 29th no-hitter since 1913 in which the pitcher faced the minimum 27 batters, and just the ninth that was not a perfect game.

Sun Life Stadium, originally known as Joe Robbie Stadium, was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds. The late Joe Robbie led the financing campaign to build "Joe Robbie Stadium"(JRS) for the Miami Dolphins of the National Football League (NFL). JRS revolutionized the economics of professional sports when it opened in 1987. Inclusion of a Club Level, along with Executive Suites, helped to finance the construction of the stadium. The original multi-purpose facility had more than 1.5 million square feet, over 24,000 parking spaces, 75,000 seats and a playing field that meets standards for the NFL and World Cup Soccer.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, then Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase 50 percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to South Florida. That effort was rewarded in July of 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. To accommodate MLB baseball and the Florida Marlins, the stadium was retrofitted in 1992 to include retractable seating, a baseball press box, baseball dugouts, new lights and a hydraulic disappearing pitcher's mound. On January 24, 1994, Mr. Huizenga acquired the remaining 50 percent of the stadium to give him complete ownership.

In February 2008, Mr. Huizenga sold 50 percent of the Miami Dolphins, stadium and surrounding developable land to Stephen M. Ross of New York and Palm Beach. Mr. Ross, Chairman of the Related Companies, an international real estate development company, became an active partner. In January 2009, Mr. Ross closed on the purchase of an additional 45 percent of the team and stadium.

The Miami Marlins enter their 24th Spring Training at Jupiter's Roger Dean Chevrolet Stadium, approximately one and a half hours north of the Club's regular season home of loanDepot park. The complex is located on approximately 110 acres within the Abacoa Community. Abacoa is located on Donald Ross Road, approximately 1/4 mile east of Interstate 95.

The Marlins share the Palm Beach County facility with the St. Louis Cardinals, one of only two multiple-team Spring Training sites in the Grapefruit League.

Roger Dean Chevrolet Stadium was named the Professional Baseball Field of the Year by the Sports Turf Managers Association in 2011.

The Marlins begin their 34th Spring Training on Saturday, February 22, when they open their Grapefruit League slate as the home team versus the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Marlins spent their inaugural Spring Training at the Cocoa Expo Center in Cocoa Beach and played nine years (1994-2002) at Space Coast Stadium in Viera (Melbourne).

The 28 million dollar complex opened on February 28, 1998 and accommodates 6,345 fans with luxury suite seats, reserved box seats, a two-deck party space, and bullpen seating area in right field.

Ahead of 2026 Spring Training, while the Marlins Jupiter Academy underwent its own renovations, the stadium transformed the space on the third-base line into the Jupiter Medical Center Champions Club and the Hot Corner Bar. The Hot Corner Bar, which is the first level of the two-deck grandstand, provided a field level view and open-air social space with a brand-new 50-foot bar. The second deck, donned the Jupiter Medical Center Champions Club, features upper-level premium spacing with panoramic field views and an upgraded all-inclusive menu with speciality entrees and non-alcoholic beverages.

Other stadium enhancements include a brand new 3,000-square-foot Team Store with exterior access that opens at 9 a.m. daily, a new sound system and LED ribbon boards above both bullpens, a renovated visiting clubhouse, expanded locker rooms to support umpires and other events, and updated press box and press level improvements.

The press level is also home to six air-conditioned luxury suites that provide 320 square feet of interior entertainment, including a wet bar, refrigerator, sink, ice maker, color television with DVD, sofa, bar stools, and additional seats. Each suite has seating for 12 (outdoors) and is available with a private entrance and elevator access. Prior to the 2018 Spring Training season, all suites at Roger Dean Chevrolet Stadium underwent a modernization by local design company V-Starr.

Following Spring Training, the complex is the home of the Single-A Jupiter Hammerheads (Miami affiliate) and the Palm Beach Cardinals (St. Louis affiliate) of the Florida State League.
